Crook Lock

Congratulations to Danielle Thompson who won a vehicle crook lock in the "See It—Lose It" competition.

She is seen here receiving her prize from PC. Chappell with Ms Robertshaw who organised the event.

Parent to Parent

Parent to Parent is a registered charity, based at the Centre for HIV & Sexual Health in Sheffield. They are local parents trained as peer educators to help increase parents' confidence and skills in talking to their children about sex and relationships.

A FREE three week course for parents and carers called "Talking to Young People about Sex & Relationships" is taking place on:

Monday April 16	5.00pm—7.30pm
Monday April 23	5.00pm—7.30pm
Monday April 30	5.00pm—7.30pm

Feedback from previous participants include:

"It gave me more confidence to answer questions and access information from leaflets and books I never knew existed"

"I realised I wasn't alone"

RAGS ARE US COLLECTION

FRIDAY 23 MARCH

Start your spring clear out now!

This is a chance to clear out your old clothes, bedding, curtains, bags, shoes and soft toys.

The items do not have to be in good condition.

Proceeds from the collection will go to fund the projects to be undertaken during the school expedition to Malealea at Easter.

Please bring your bags to the front of school between 8.00 am and 9.15 am.

(or beforehand to the Library or Mr Dunn's office)
